JOINT RECITAL BY FAMOUS ARTISTS

Perhaps the most musical offering of the season will be the joint recital of the famous artists, which will be given by Albert Spalding, American violinist, and Rudolf Ganz, Swiss pianist, who for many years have been a naturalized citizen of the United States. These famous artists, both without peers, will play Tuesday evening, Feb. 24.

Spalding is regarded by many as the greatest American violinist and his return to concert stage after serving his country during the war as a regular member of the air department has been one continuous round of enthusiastic receptions. While he was in the service he was located most of the time in Italy and there was honored by the Italian government with two decorations, one of which was the highest that can be conferred on a foreign citizen. He is not only a master of the instrument, but is attaining rank already as a composer and thinks that his compositions will be the foundation for typical American music.

It is needless to recount the artistic virtues of Ganz, who has been some years ago and made a wonderful impression. He is said to have ripened his art since then and is one of the world's greatest virtuosi.

The program for the recital is announced as follows:

Nocturne in C minor..... Chopin
Waltz in E minor..... Chopin
Etude in E major..... Chopin
Scherzo in B flat minor..... Chopin
Sonata in D major..... Handel
Adagio..... Liszt
Larghetto..... Liszt
Prelude, Lute and Gavotte in E major (From Sixt Sonata for Violin alone)..... Bach
Bourée in B minor..... Bach-Saint-Saens
Impromptu in G flat..... Schubert
Ballet music from Rosamunde..... Schubert
Paganini's Motion..... Weber
Theme and Variations..... Don Lorenz-Paganini
Scherzo..... Paganini
After Midnight..... Ganz
Petrarca, Sonnet..... Ganz
St. Francis Marching on the Waves..... Ganz
Liszt
Romanza Andante..... Sarasate
Lettre de Chopin..... Albert Spalding
La Campanella..... Spalding

MISCHA ELMAN TO PLAY
IN MEMPHIS AGAIN

Announcement of the date for a return engagement by the famous Russian violinist, Mischa Elman, at the Goodwyn institute under the auspices of the Beethoven club has awakened enthusiasm among the many lovers of good music and those who are familiar with this artist through his phenomenal records. He will appear here on Wednesday evening, March 10. It will be recalled that he played here last season to a capacity audience and proved a delightful artist.

HOFFMAN IS COMING FOR LOCAL CONCERT

Members of the Beethoven club and other musicians and lovers of the art are already getting ready for the final concert of the season's series, which promises to be one of the most eventful. Joseph Hoffman, by many regarded as the world's most gifted pianist, having been before the public since early childhood, will be the offering and the date will be March 5. Hoffman creates a furor wherever he plays and is one of the brightest luminaries in the musical world, being famous as a composer as well as a performer.

REDISCOVERED.

Chicago correspondence to Musical America had the following item regarding a character known to local musical people:

The Edison Symphony orchestra, under its efficient conductor, Morgan L. Eastman, at Orchestra hall, last Thursday evening, presented the usual popular symphony program before an appreciative audience. Among the orchestra was Giuseppe Penzani, Italian tenor, a discovery of Mr. Eastman, who found the young musical aspirant a couple of seasons ago in an Italian restaurant, where he was employed.

LENT ORGAN RECITALS.

On each Sunday evening during Lent at Calvary Episcopal church free organ recitals will be given by Adolph Seidman, F. A. G. O., organist and choir director. The series will be made of special interest to the lover of good music and the public is extended an invitation to be present. They will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and will last one hour.

The first recital will take place Sunday evening, Feb. 22, and assisting in the program will be Claude M. Sauer, choir soloist of the Calvary choir.
